Description of the product: (Include specific quantifiable details from tech data sheet. Advertising generalities are not appropriate.)
Clear Water Resin concrete curing compound is a membrane forming treatment utilizing a dissipating resin base combined in a treated clear water solution. This VOC compliant product is designed to provide maximum curing to freshly laid exterior concrete paving applications.

Restrictions, (installation and/or use):
This material is water based so it should be kept at temperatures above 40°F.

Use of the product, (be specific to CDOT highway activities only):
Ideal for many sizes of exterior concrete slab work (roadways, airport runways, parking lots, etc.) as well as other flatwork applications.

Benefits to CDOT, (how will your product enhance quality, improve safety, save money, be a better value then other manufacturer's products):
Membrane forming treatments enhance slab water retention, densifies and hardens concrete, improves tensile and compressive strength over non-cured slabs, has stable packaging with no hard settlement. This product is price competitive and always in stock.
