

Consultation on Historic Resources

THE SECTION 106 PROCESS

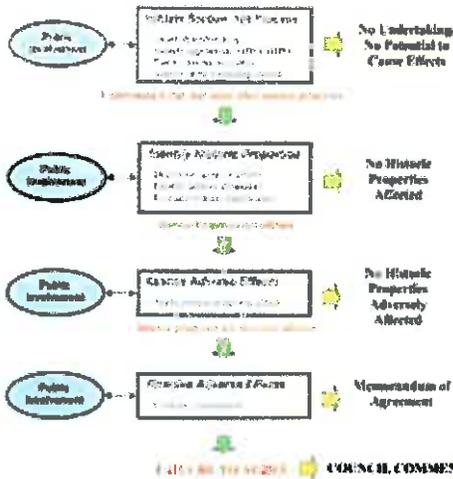

Photo Source: Advisory Council on Historic Preservation

07-0014-11

Consultation on Historic Resources

THE SECTION 106 PROCESS

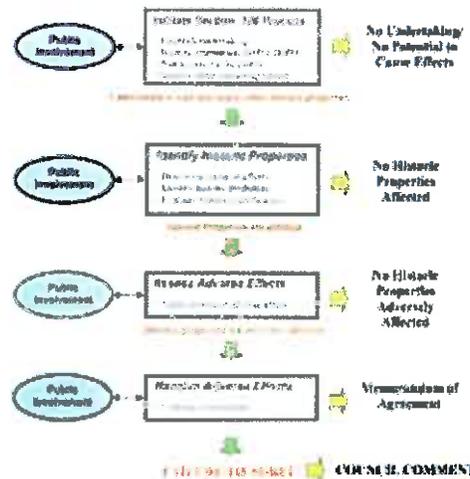

Photo Source: Advisory Council on Historic Preservation

07-0014-11

Consultation on Historic Resources

THE SECTION 106 PROCESS

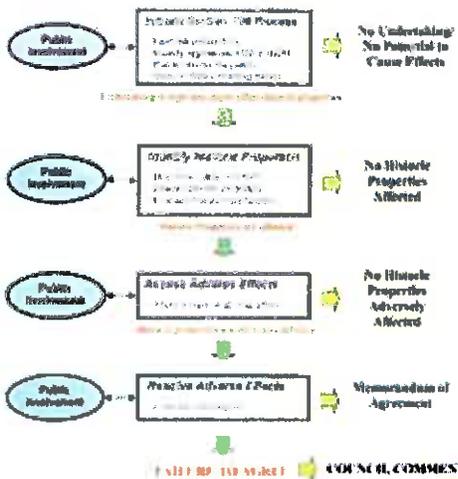

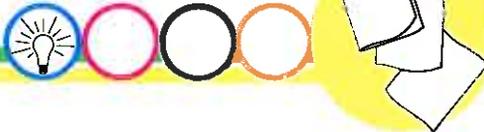

Photo Source: Advisory Council on Historic Preservation

07-0014-11

Consultation on Historic Resources

THE SECTION 106 PROCESS

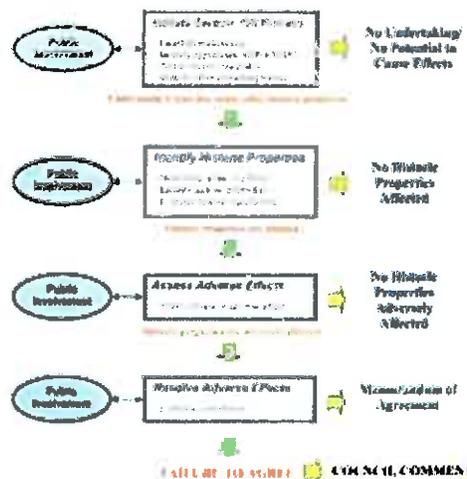

Photo Source: Advisory Council on Historic Preservation

07-0014-11

Consultation on Historic Resources

When there is potential that a Colorado Department of Transportation action could affect a public resource, CDOT undertakes an evaluation consistent with requirements of Section 106 of the National Historic Preservation Act.

As an early step in the Section 106 process, CDOT contacts members of Certified Local Governments, local historical societies, museums, historic preservation commissions, or other knowledgeable individuals who might be able to provide views or comments on an undertaking or have specific knowledge concerning historic properties.

Consultation on Historic Resources

When there is potential that a Colorado Department of Transportation action could affect a public resource, CDOT undertakes an evaluation consistent with requirements of Section 106 of the National Historic Preservation Act.

As an early step in the Section 106 process, CDOT contacts members of Certified Local Governments, local historical societies, museums, historic preservation commissions, or other knowledgeable individuals who might be able to provide views or comments on an undertaking or have specific knowledge concerning historic properties.

Consultation on Historic Resources

When there is potential that a Colorado Department of Transportation action could affect a public resource, CDOT undertakes an evaluation consistent with requirements of Section 106 of the National Historic Preservation Act.

As an early step in the Section 106 process, CDOT contacts members of Certified Local Governments, local historical societies, museums, historic preservation commissions, or other knowledgeable individuals who might be able to provide views or comments on an undertaking or have specific knowledge concerning historic properties.

Consultation on Historic Resources

When there is potential that a Colorado Department of Transportation action could affect a public resource, CDOT undertakes an evaluation consistent with requirements of Section 106 of the National Historic Preservation Act.

As an early step in the Section 106 process, CDOT contacts members of Certified Local Governments, local historical societies, museums, historic preservation commissions, or other knowledgeable individuals who might be able to provide views or comments on an undertaking or have specific knowledge concerning historic properties.

