

Paper: Brush News Tribune

Date: Thursday, October 11, 2008

Railroad relocation meeting slated Tuesday at fairgrounds

An informational meeting on proposed relocation of railroad lines from the Front Range to the plains of Eastern Colorado is scheduled for Tuesday.

The session, sponsored by the Colorado Department of Transportation, is set for 4:30 to 6 p.m. Tuesday at the Morgan County Fairgrounds old 4-H exhibit hall at 750 Ellsworth St. in Brush.

More information about the railroad relocation project may be found on the web at www.dot.state.co.us/railroadstudy .

A group called Citizens Against Railroad Relocation (CARR) is opposing the proposed move.

"We want to preserve the quality of our communities, farms, ranches, natural resources, wildlife, land and way of life for future generations by protecting private property rights," said group spokesman Jay Jolly.

More information about CARR may be found at www.cocarr.homestead.com .